E.D. Z. T. WILLIAMS' LETTER.

From Venice to Paris.

The Editor of the News:
We left Venice at 2:30 a. m., May 31st, for Como, via Milan. Arrived at Milan at 2 o'clock p. m., and spent five hours seeing the sights of that city. We went at once to Cathedral Square which is the center of bustle and life of the city. The leading streets of the city center in this square, and it is surrounded by some of the most important buildings. Here the great cathedral of Milan stands. In the center of the square stands the monument of Victor Emmanuel made by the sculptor, Ercole Rosa, who died before this, his last work, was completed. It is the finest monument in Milan. The cathedral is one of the greatest and most wonderful work of art. It was begun in 1886. It is dedicated to the nativity of the blessed Virgin Mary. Its shape is that of the Latin cross, 148 meters in length and 88 in width; 105 meters high. The material in this magnificent building cost, it is said $100,000,000 besides the labor of putting it up. It is nearly 500 feet long on the outside and 260 feet wide. The central spire is 360 feet high, and from its pinnacle you see 2,000 smaller pinnacles, each one having a statue of marble on its summit. We climbed to the top of the central spire and had a splendid view of the city and surrounding country. It is the third largest church in all Europe.

In St. Maria Della Grazie, which was originally an Abbey church, seen the last supper, frescoed on the rear of the church, by Leonardo da Vinci in the 15th century, and is very interesting in spite of its ruined condition. Milan, the capital of Lombardy, is one of the largest and wealthiest cities of Italy. It is now a great manufacturing center with about 900,000 inhabitants. It is the center for music, and is the largest market place for silk and cotton in Italy. After spending five hours very pleasantly in Milan we left for Como and spent the night in that beautiful city on Lake Como. It is an old town, but comparatively new in the development of industries. It has a large silk manufacture and splendid trade in silks. It is surrounded by hills, adorned with many rich villas where invalids and pleasure seekers spend summers. It has about 25,000 inhabitants.

We left Como for Lucerne on the morning of June the 1st at 8:40, by train. Our railway led us through the Alps by the St. Gotthard pass. We soon felt a change in the climate and had to put on our overcoats to keep warm. Many of these mountain peaks are snow capped, and in some places the railway rises near them. There is some beautiful and picturesque scenery on this road, as much as almost any we have been privileged to see. Just below the snow covered mountain sides are covered with grass and forest and evergreens; then the beautiful valley that grows narrower as you approach the great tunnel is carpeted with grasses and some parts in cultivation. Cedars and pine cover the mountain side and many beautiful waterfalls are seen along the way. There is one of the longest tunnels on this road through the Alps in the world. We took boat on Lake Lucern at Flueelen and sailed the entire length of this beautiful lake to the city of Lucern. The scenery on this lake is unsurpassed for wild and picturesque views. Lucern is situated in the heart of Switzerland within easy reach of all that is grandest in scenery of the Alps, and the tourist delight to linger here and enjoy this rendezvous as a summer resort. The Rigi may be reached by rail in a little time, and this mountain resort is to be reckoned among the most popular in all Italy. Many tourist climb this mountain to get a view of sunrise. It is said that visit Lucern every year, and the town is supported largely by tourist. The Triumphal Arch, begun by Napoleon I, in 1806, to commemorate the glories of the French armies, cost $600,000 lbs. sterling, and is a living picture of the glorious triumph of the first empire.

We saw the July column at Place de Bastille, erected to the memory of the heroes of 1830. It is 154 feet high and beneath it are interred the victims of 1830, who died for liberty, and it really ought to be called the "Liberty Tower." The names of the heroes are inscribed on the column in letters of gold.

We saw Cleopatra's Needle. It is at Place de la Concord and is of red granite, 75 feet high and weighs 250 tons and came from Luxor, Egypt. But I must close this letter and leave Paris for London, and my next will be from Paris to Montpelier, Ky.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as there is no such thing as a cure for deafness. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed it has a running discharge and interferes with hearing and it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

At Cleburne, Texas, a jury decided that John Renfro, a prominent young white man who killed James Williams for defending in court the good name of his dead daughter against Renfro's slanders, is sane. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Desha Pickett, champion of the "Orphan Brigade," and twelve years Superintendent of Public Instruction in Kentucky, died Saturday at his home near Chicago, where he had resided since 1891. The remains were buried at a family burying ground in Mason county.

and left early next morning for Paris, that is two of us did. Crossfield and McGarvey took a tour of three or four days through Germany. Duncan and myself arrived at Paris about 6 o'clock and engaged rooms for ten days for four francs each. We arrived on Saturday evening, and Sunday is not known.

We saw the July column at Place de Bastille, erected to the memory of the heroes of 1830. It is 154 feet high and beneath it are interred the victims of 1830, who died for liberty, and it really ought to be called the "Liberty Tower." The Lines are Drawn.

The result obtained at Lexington is as honest and as unequivocal an expression of the will of the people as could be expected or desired.

It will carry with it all the weight it deserves as a free and genuine expression. It ought, and we think it will, reunite the party. The issue between the two parties in the nation is much the same as it was before the interpolation of intestine faction and doctrinal quibbling. But, in the State it is a simple choice between the responsible elements of conservative, orderly and intelligent society and the combine of money and murder, which is not working in harmony. Morley's Liver and Kidney Cordial restores order and rids the body of all waste products that clog the system. It induces sound digestion, sound nerves and sound sleep.

Gov. Beckman has shown himself a prudent and courageous man.

He does his duty during an ordeal that might have tried the wisdom of an older man. His nomination is the popular recognition of this.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President—

WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
Of Nebraska.

For Vice President—

ADLAJ E. STEVENSON,
Of Illinois.

For Governor—

J. C. W. BECKHAM,
Of Nelson.

For Congress—

BEN V. SMITH,
Of Pulaski.

As the trial at Georgetown proceeds more convincing is the conspiracy to murder exposed.

It is given out that Hon. D. B. Hill will speak in Kentucky for the Democrats during the coming campaign.

The mother of Hon. James D. Richardson, the Democratic leader in Congress, died at Murfreesboro, Tenn., last Saturday.

Robt. Charles, a negro desperado, was shot to death at New Orleans last Friday after he had killed and wounded a dozen men.

The Democratic State Central Committee has been called to meet at Covington to-morrow to select a Campaign Committee and to make other important arrangements.

King Humbert of Italy was assassinated last Sunday. Three shots entered his body, one piercing his heart. Angelo Bressi, the assassin, is an anarchist. He has been arrested, and no Mount will interfere.

Hon. Charles A. Towne will be withdrawn from the fusion Populist ticket about the 15th of August. His resignation will be accepted and Adlai E. Stevenson will be placed in his stead.

It begins to look like every body is traveling Democratic. The National gold wing of the party will not put out a ticket, but will support Mr. Bryan. The German element of the Republican party is in line with the Democratic, and there is no question but Mr. Bryan grows stronger every day. Mr. Harrison will not have anything to say for Mr. McKinley which means a gain of many Democratic votes in Indiana, and it is confidently believed that Mr. Bryan will carry the State. Mount lives in Indiana.

A VIEW OF THE PAST.

A little over a year ago three prominent and distinguished Democrats engaged in one of the most thorough and exciting campaigns for the Democratic nomination for Governor that was ever experienced in this State. Charge after charge were made against each other which aroused their friends to the same political altitude, and all who witnessed the State Convention will remember the strife and bitterness created in all parts of the Commonwealth in the Democratic party.

It was a time when the friends of each candidate asserted that they were right and that their choice only could win in the final contest at the polls, and when the county conventions were held all kinds of methods prevailed that indicated success for their candidate. It was a bitter contention as to what the result would be. Who was most at fault for sending a state of affairs not material at this hour. We are not willing to condemn the cause of any of the candidates for bringing about such a terrific fight in our own party. It is grievous enough to contemplate its devastating effects. It matters not who was most at fault if those who were acting good Samaritans, for that fight is past, and we ought to be wiser if not better.

The delegates who were selected went to the convention at Louisville determined to win the nomination for their favorite regardless of the golden rule; they went to win by any means, foul or fair. This was as morally true of the delegates favorable to one candidate as of the other. It so happened that the friends of William Gandy prevailed and he landed the coveted prize.

A full State ticket was named and we all returned to our respective counties, some with joyful hearts, others with bitter feelings, swearing vengeance on the head of our ticket for having won upon the same footing and similar method—that they sought to gain advantage and win the nomination. At that time it was not apparent to the great bulk of Democrats that a powerful corporation had espoused the cause of one candidate and had been instrumental in creating a bitter fight in our own party, and had exhausted all its effective tactics in trying to secure the nomination for its choice; but failing, it sought a disruption in disrupting the Democratic party and doing all it could to elect a Republican. In this it used every agency that would accomplish its purpose.

An independent Democratic ticket was put up to draw all dissatisfied Democrats who could not be induced to vote direct for the Republican ticket and throughout the State good men, true Democrats, who had never faltered in all the past, were induced to support it on the full belief that they were doing the best that could be done. They believed that their leaders were honest and sincere in fighting the party nominees and they were induced to support John Young Brown. It was a terrible struggle and the power that failed in Music Hall was doing its work, showing fraud to those who sought to deceive. Thousands of good, true Democrats were pulled off their political base which had never been done before.

At that time, nor have we since, doubted the honesty and good intentions of the rank and file of those who supported the independent ticket. While we did not believe them right, and while we felt assured that they were acting under the heat of passion in taking such a position that their sense of pride would induce zeal and earnest work for their ticket, yet we felt that the majority of them were actuated by pure and upright motives for what seemed to them to be the best interest of the party. We endeavored to give them fair treatment, but the news seemed to be a target at which many of them fired, but unkindly of the many hits, we pursued our course, supporting the Democratic nominees as best we could, and down to this good time we have no tangible evidence that in so doing we committed a wrong against our party or a sin against the Commonwealth.

At all times we gave our Democratic brethren better treatment than we received from them, but at no time did we cov from threats or swerve from the plain path of duty. Admissions still come from those who claim to be Democrats for us to keep still while they may come silently back to affiliate with the party. Now, here is what we have to say:

The door, the front door is wide open and all who left one year ago have been invited back by two State conventions and the granting of nearly all their demands, except the naming of a candidate. You left the party by reason of the Music Hall Convention and by the endorsement of the Goebel election law at that time, but are now facing the direct opposite you have been granted that peaceful, honest and fair convention which you assert is Democratic. The same convention requests our Legislature to change the election law and put it in the minds of all a fair, honest law. That same convention provided such modus operandi for party organization as you have demand. What's wrong? If you were right in your contentions last year you should now be a hearty supporter of the nominee.

Mr. Beckham did not get his nomination by fraud. He is a worthy Democrat, and the party has said in unmistakable terms that he is the man for the place. The fight before us has no connection with the one that is past. If Mr. Goebel was not your choice the assassin and conspirators have done their work. This is no time to quibble over little matters or to pull and all the common enemy to "press the crown of thorns" on the brow of Democracy; it is the supreme opportunity of every Democrat, whether silver or gold, Goebel or anti-Goebel.

The causes that broke your devotion to your party have ceased to exist, and it is now confronted with conditions that are appalling. Now, if you mean to assist your party, do not put it off too long. If you feel that it is Democratic to support a Democratic nominee in preference to a Republican, then come in through the front door, pull off your coat and go to work.

It is not a matter of concern to us when you left nor for what you left; we are only interested in your return. New conditions confront us and more serious troubles are coming than you imagined existed one year ago. There is no middle ticket this time—it is Democratic straight or Republican straight.

The news will pursue that same open and fair course as in the past. We do not expect the Democratic party to go at our bidding. We are willing for the majority to rule and when the majority has made a platform and named its candidate we consider it Democratic to give said nominee a hearty and enthusiastic support. We expect to do our duty as we see it let the result be what it may. This is a fight between Democrats and Republicans in this State and between the money power and the plain people in the nation.

Be not deceived.

The prosecution rested its case against Caleb Powers last Saturday and believes the evidence strong enough to convict him. Powers thinks he will come clear on a motion for peremptory instruction. If this is overruled, which in our judgment, the Court is sure to do, Powers will take the stand in his own behalf, followed by about one hundred other witnesses. Probably a verdict will be reached by the last of next week. If a verdict of guilty is rendered, it is reported that John Powers will visit Georgetown with a mob and attempt to rescue his brother. No doubt John would be willing, but the undertaking would be a little too much for him.

At that time, nor have we since, doubted the honesty and good intentions of the rank and file of those who supported the independent ticket. While we did not believe them right, and while we felt assured that they were acting under the heat of passion in taking such a position that their sense of pride would induce zeal and earnest work for their ticket, yet we felt that the majority of them were actuated by pure and upright motives for what seemed to them to be the best interest of the party. We endeavored to give them fair treatment, but the news seemed to be a target at which many of them fired, but unkindly of the many hits, we pursued our course, supporting the Democratic nominees as best we could, and down to this good time we have no tangible evidence that in so doing we committed a wrong against our party or a sin against the Commonwealth.

At all times we gave our Democratic brethren better treatment than we received from them, but at no time did we cov from

We understand that the colored woman preacher, who has been conducting a meeting in the Burkhards' home for the past two months, was closed out on Saturday evening, leaving Elder one night last week. It is a shame that a theologian of her reputation and standing should be thus failed in trying to lead sinners to repentance.

The catalogues for the Russell Springs Fair, one thousand in number, were completed in this office last Saturday. It is a 16-page book, and in less than a week from the time we received it, a large portion of the same was in the hands of the Secretaries. Quite a number of parties are com- plaining about having their gardens, corn patches and watermelon patches railed off in this vicinity and if the parties are caught they will get the same treatment as the man who succeeded in growing a tree he should be protected in the enjoyment of it, and the only way to break up detectable petty larceny is to apply the law to the fullest extent.

The committee is now working to put up a high and permanent institution of learning. The proposition is clear. We must raise $2,500.00 or loose the school. In order to get up the money it will be necessary for every body to do their duty; let others do as they may. It would be a great calamity to the rising generation for this to fail. It will be no great burden to the present one to make it a success. We must have the school; so don't let an opportunity slip.

The school meeting, as announced in the last issue of the News, was held in the court-house last Wednesday evening.

A good sized crowd was out and the interest manifested clearly indicated that the people of this community realize the importance of education. The action of some of the older folk did not tend to encourage the educational board of New York, which he represents, was willing to appropriate $500.00 annually to the school here and to make it permanent, and the people of this section would appreciate it to the extent of putting the building and grounds in good condition, and to provide for keeping them in a comfortable and attractive form. The estimated cost of the building and grounds is $1,500.00 annually to keep the building and grounds in nice order.

This was agreed upon as the amount that this town would offer Dr. McDonald as proof of its ability, and appreciation for this generous and patriotic contribution to us, and in order to express our thanks to him for his services, he was appointed to solicit subscription to this fund. CANE VALLEY.

Born, to the wife of Sam Shreve, July 26, a 10 pound daughter.

State Democratic Platform.

We, the democrats of Kentucky, in convention assembled, do make the following declarations of principles.

First.—We heartily endorse the magnificent platform adopted by the National democratic convention at Kansas City on July 4th 1900, and also the splendid ticket named by said convention, and pledge the democracy of Kentucky to an earnest, cordial and active support of said ticket.

Second.—The entire history of the democratic party has demonstrated that it has always been the champion and defender of the rights of the great common people; that it has ever insisted that the will of the majority shall control and that the majority must cheerfully and willingly assent thereto. It has always advocated, and still does, that all elections shall be fairly conducted and the result honestly ascertained. We recommend that the election law of '98, which was enacted to prevent the repetition of well-known republican frauds in certain districts of this State and which was a marked improvement on the then existing law, but which has not proved sufficient for that purpose, be amended so as to secure this end so thoroughly that the most hypocritical can find no excuse for charging fraud or unfairness to our party in the conduct of the election.

Until such amendments can be enacted by the General Assembly we declare that the republican party shall have representation upon both the State and all county boards of election commissioners.

We declare to the world that the mob and the assassin shall not be the arbitrators of the rights of the citizens of Kentucky nor shall the penalty of an appeal to the law and the regular constituted authorities be death at the hands of assassins. Law and order must and shall prevail in Kentucky.

Third.—We present to the people of Kentucky the picture of an army of intimidation, unlawful quartered in the public buildings of the State; a State Auditor, in the discharge of his duty to the State, stricken down by an assassin's bullet, fired from ambush in the executive building, then occupied by his political adversary, who hoped to profit by his death; that adversary arming, filling and surrounding the building with armed men; instructed to defy the civil authorities and prevent search for the assassin; the same political adversary and republican pretender, by force, dissolving the Legislature, in violation of the constitution; attempting by military power to force the Legislature to meet in a veritable slaughter-pen for the democratic members; driving its members through the streets of Frankfort at point of bayonet, forcibly preventing the Legislature from meeting in its lawful and proper place; keeping armed, riotous and disorderly men under the very window of the room where lay dying the assassin's victim; driving the court of appeals from the Capitol; aiding with the soldiery and spurious pardons those lawfully accused of capital crimes to flee from justice; and by military force defying the writ of habeas corpus; the same republican pretender fleeing from the State after indictment and remaining a fugitive from justice, protected by open violation of the constitution of the United States, after having declared to the State, "I am a citizen of this State and amenable to its laws. I am not a criminal, neither shall I ever be a fugitive from justice. Whenever indicted I shall appear for trial." And we confidently declare our belief that a majority of the people of Kentucky favor the preservation of law and order; of both personal and civil liberty; and the maintenance of the constitutional rights of the people—democratic principle, which is the hope and inspiration of every true democrat.

Fourth.—We denounce the action of Gov. Bradley in using and personally commanding the military force of the State to control the election and intimidate electors at the election of November, 1899, in violation of the constitution and laws of the Commonwealth.

Fifth.—The democratic party expresses the deepest and sincerest grief over the untimely end of its distinguished leader and friend of the great Common People, Gov. William Goebel. His name and fame is and will remain a sacred heritage of the democrats of Kentucky.

Sixth.—We earnestly invite the support by voice and vote of ever sincere lover of civil and personal liberty to join with us in this campaign against the forces gathered under the banner of a government by assassination. The true manhood of Kentucky cannot and will not endorse assassination as the means to obtain possession of office, and we appeal to every democrat and every good citizen of Kentucky to unite with the democratic party and thus express his detestation of a foul crime.

We endorse the Administration of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and point with pride to its submission to and steadfast fidelity to the law during the most troublesome exciting and perilous days of the Commonwealth.

Story Of A Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst of slavery. George D. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by T. E. Paul, druggist.

Prevented A Tragedy.

Tiny information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Martinsville, Ohio, saved her life. She had been shot in the head, kept her awake every night. During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Green county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by M. Cravens.
